BIN END SPECIALS

- The Black Pig The Prize Chardonnay - Australia (2) £24.99
Perfect balance: clean, bright citrus flavours nestled against toasted nuts and a long, smooth finish. The oak does not overpower the natural freshness of the Adelaide Hills fruit but instead works in harmony, making this a true masterpiece.
- Kies Gruner Veltliner – Austria (2) £24.99
Ripe pear and lime marmalade on the nose with spice too. Rich on the palate, it's got loads of ripe stone fruits, hints of more exotic stuff and a mineral, spicy nature. It's a lovely, intense Grüner with so much going on and, crucially, a real freshness.
- Les Arbousiers Albarino 2018 – France (3) £16.99
Delicate peach and apple flavours. Although sensational on its own, try pairing this with seafood, white fish or poultry.
- Elisa Gavi 2018 – Italy (1) £19.99
A rich wine, with taste of citrus and peaches. It is fresh and mineral with rich finish.
- The Black Pig The Prize Shiraz – Australia (5) £24.99
Classic Shiraz packed with intense black fruit, peppery spice and a finish that is as long as the Nile! Full bodied style that screams out for grilled meats of all kinds, although its status as a vegan friendly wine makes it a popular choice across the board.
- Pizo Crianza 2017 – Italy (4) £16.99
A very happy medium between fresh and fruity young wine and the richer, more decadent oak aged reds. Plush strawberry and plum with vanilla notes and slight nutty hints.
- Perez Cruz Winemaker's Selection 2018 – Chile (6) £23.99
The notes of ripe redcurrant and blackberries are highlighted with a classic touch of tarragon and laurel and accented with black pepper, vanilla and figs. This is huge red... try with a nice juicy steak.
- Kuehn Cremant d'Alsace – France (Sparkling Pinot Blanc) (3) £22.99 is a great combination of the complexities that its production method gives the wine, as well as the freshness and brightness that its place of origin, Alsace, is famous for. With this Cuvée Prestige, you'll get fresh, bright citrus and green apple on the nose, fine and creamy bubbles on the palate and a fresh pear finish, all underpinned by a subtle nutty note.
